

UK-AFRICA FOOD SECURITY SYMPOSIUM 2018

Developing effective and equitable interdisciplinary partnerships to address food insecurity in Africa

Sainsbury Laboratory Auditorium, University of Cambridge, UK
Tuesday, 11 September 2018

A unique interdisciplinary platform for Cambridge researchers to come together with NGOs, students, and research professionals from Africa, elsewhere in the UK, and the EU, to exchange knowledge, and develop new effective strategies and partnerships that can help address food insecurity in sub-Saharan Africa.

The programme will include

- Keynote addresses
- Panel-led discussion sessions
- 'Bio-innovation for Africa' pitching competition
